Dedication

This year the El Bronco staff takes great pleasure in dedicating this annual to a man who has given eleven years of service to Coast Union High School as a school board member. Seven of these years he has been president of the school board. He has contributed wisely and generously of his counsel and wisdom to further the interests of the school.

In appreciation of his service and interest in our Alma Mater, we dedicate this El Bronco '55 to Harold H. Waite.

ENTIRE CLASS OF '55 ATTENDS S. L. O. COUNTY FAIR

The 1975 annual San Luis Obispo County Fair in Cambria, California, held a treat in store for the fourteen members of the Class of 1955. This fair marked the date which the graduating class had set twenty long years ago as the time for a class reunion.

When I arrived at the immense fairgrounds situated in southern Cambria, I had no idea where to go first. I must have looked quite perplexed because an attractive woman asked me, "aren't you Betty "Hopper" Churchwell?" I immediately recognized the woman to be my old classmate, Kathleen Fiscalini.

We decided to visit the art show and while walking there, I learned that Kathleen was a Conover model in Interspace City, Mars.

At the art show, I spotted a delightful oil painting of a village of Navajos. While examining the painting, I found written in the lower, right hand corner-the name, Laura Warren. Kathleen and I looked for Laura who later joined us after washing paint off her face.

We girls stopped at a Better Food show and what did we see but a huge pot of Boston-baked beans with a big, blue ribbon attached to it. We instantly knew that Marlene Smithers was near and that she was - right behind the big blue ribbon!

Upon deciding to look at our El Bronco '55, our little caravan started towards my car in the parking lot. We couldn't help but notice a fuming, red-headed man who was having trouble with his car motor. As it turned out, the man was Phillip Williams, designer of the first helicauto (helicopter car).

The morning flew by and before we knew it, the lunch hour had arrived. Kathleen suggested that we dine at Aileen's Barbecue Pit. Were we ever surprised when we saw Aileen Neighbors in charge of a block square barbecue pit and steak house! What a layout!

After eating, our ever-growing group attended the midget car races. The winner in the loudest, reddest, longest car there turned out to be the terror on wheels, Rayena Fancher. After removing her crash helmet (it was crazier than my hat) she led us to the rodeo grounds.

We were in luck and got front row seats. There is nothing dustier than front row seats at a rodeo! The first contest of the day proved to be a thriller. Bucking bronco, after rider, after bronco, came out of that chute, but the only one to stay on the required time was that wiry, red-headed professional cowboy, Nicky Yost.

I hadn't seen Tiny that day and asked someone about her. They told me that Tiny was that seven foot clown on stilts in the center of the arena. Comedian Kathryn Warren was a second Martha Raye, but better. She now has six television shows on three nation networks.

There was one member of our class that all of us still knew well. That was Jerry Borges, who had run on the Better America ticket and won the election for president of the United States. Today Jerry was seated with his family in the vast grandstands circling the rodeo grounds.

The audience heard a jet plane fly over the fairgrounds. Moments later, they saw a white speck in the sky floating earthward. It landed with a thud and who stepped out from under the white folds but Diane Bianchi! Diane started out on her fabulous career as an airline hostess and ended up as the owner of the "United Galaxies Space Line".

Near the end of the show, Colonel Reynolds and her battalion of WAFs paraded across the grounds in an excellent military style. Terry had joined the WAFs after finishing high school and had steadily progressed until she had attained the rank of colonel.

Later in the evening, we were all, we thought, assembled in a 4-H booth. After calling roll, we discovered that one of us besides "Foxerace" was missing. The absent person was Bruce Wood, a professor at Harvard. The group decided to be patient, because almost anything could have happened. Well it did. --We later learned that Professor Wood was trying to prove his new theory about reflection of light in a house of mirrors in the midway. As usual, Bruce became confused, lost his way, and spent three hours in there before finding the exit.

From there we went to the "Dust Bowl", an open air theater, to hear "Foxerace". This was the name which Joseph Fox had taken after his first and successful world recital in 1961. We were all introduced as Joe's guests.

After saying good-bye, we each went our own separate ways. I hurried away to the National Reporters Convention in Washington, D. C.

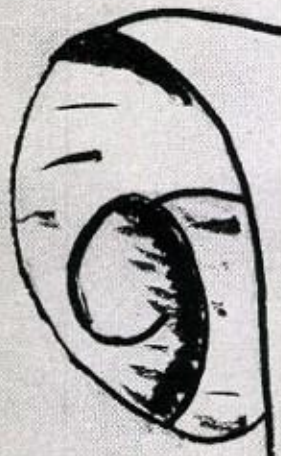
Senior Class Will



We, the Senior Class of Coast Union High School, in the County of San Luis Obispo, in the State of California, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-five have found that we have nothing of real value to bestow upon future seniors. So, we will to these unfortunate individuals tokens and memories of our high school years that they, in their senior years, may also have a wonderful time.

I, Bruce Wood, will my ability to antagonize teachers to anybody willing to receive C's and D's.

I, Marlene Smithers, will my ice-skates to all the Junior girls.

I, Jerry Borges, will my big business operation to my best customer, Terry Morgan.

I, Kathleen Fiscalini, will my ability to speak well in Senior Problems class to Deanna Bassetti.

I, Laura Warren, will my height to Chickie Williams.

I, Nicky Yost, will my spot on the delinquent list to Dave Allison.

I, Joe Fox, will my everlasting friendship with my girl friend's father to Ray Buss.

I, Betty Churchwell, will to DeAnn Lyons my ability to get in early after dates.

I, Kathryn Warren, will my ability to scrape chairs to Janice Ricioli.

I, Diane Bianchi, will my aches and pains to Donna Hardman.

I, Terry Reynolds, will my American Twist in tennis to Dian-Marie Junge.

I, Phillip Williams, will the pit and new transmission to Johnny Dillard.

In witness whereof, the Class of '55 have joyfully set our "X" on this last will and statement in the presence of our class advisors, Miss Leona Forster and Mr. Norman Piester.

Junior Class

Well, the year of 1954-55 found us back at good old Coast Union High. This year we were high and mighty Juniors and had a great deal to do.

There was the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet in May, which was quite a big job. We just seem to have inherited the task. This year the theme was "Fantasy Land".

Our other activities consisted of food sales, which were always a success, a dance on February 25th, and the Junior Play which was plenty of fun for everyone. At play practices we got together at students' homes to discuss the play, entitled "The Daffy Dills", which was scheduled for March. We also sold school autograph books to the student body.

While selecting our class rings we got into great excitement, but finally chose gold with black onyx stones, called the "American Beauty".

Now that the year is over we are all a little wiser one way or another. We all hope to be able to come back next year as even mightier Seniors than we were Juniors. We hope to return from summer vacation for our last school days, at least the last for some of us, and to graduate from Coast Union High School.

Farewell to the Seniors of this year and may they always have good fortune. As for the other students, we hope to see all of them next year.

Our class sponsors were: Miss Stringer and Mr. Churchwell

Our class officers were: Donna Hardman. President: Marlin Boisen Vice President; DeAnn Lyons, Secretary: Janice Ricioli, Treasurer.

When in September, the Sophomores were once again reunited, we had a new experience. We found to our delight, that we were no longer considered the babies of Coast Union, but were even being looked up to by the Freshmen!

We started the year off by having a dance entitled "Hernando's Hideaway". We got into the mystic mood by having the tables decorated with candles which cast eerie shadows on black silhouettes pasted over the walls. At one end was a "bar" over which refreshments were served.

We also had a food sale which added to our steadily growing funds.

We are looking forward to having another dance, sponsoring a show, and having other activities. Then our next really big undertaking is the decoration of the auditorium for Baccalaureate.

Class officers elected this year were the following: President, Linda Neff; Vice President, Bonnie Wood; Secretary, Frankie Sebastian; and Treasurer, Jimmie Evans.

We would like to thank our advisors, Mr. Dunn and Mr. Knowles for their cooperation and assistance throughout the year.

Freshmen Class

School opened too early again this year, at least for the members of the Freshman Class who enrolled in Coast Union. Remember how strange it felt to be in high school?

It was three weeks before we involuntarily became full-fledged members of the "Red and Gold", via initiation. Everyone had a good time but us and we didn't count!

The "program" included a "tar and feathering", a "can-can dance", and various "musical selections". Don't forget the rotten eggs, cold cream, lipstick and that AWFUL limburger cheese!

Our dance was held on April Fools' Day. That gave us many ideas for a theme.

Of course there were the traditional duties that are willed to every Freshman Class, like restoring the "C". That meant lugging and painting a lot of rocks!

During football season there were quite a few stiff necks - not from playing football either. It's a disease that seems most common to Freshmen who decorate goal posts.

Our thanks to our Freshman advisors, Miss Mauldin and Mr. Bogert, who helped make our first year a little easier.

In spite of everything, all the Freshmen enjoyed their first year and we expect to stay here until we're seniors, if for nothing else than to be able to initiate a new group of freshmen.

This year's Freshman officers were:

President: Dave Allison; Vice President: Clark Chipman; Secretary: Diane Backensten; Treasurer: Lea Joy Bordegary; and Business Manager: Donald Wallace.

California Scholarship Federation

The California Scholarship Federation is Coast Union High School's highest honorary scholarship society, and is composed of high-ranking students who maintain an honor point average of ten points each semester in their academic and extra-curricular activities.

Officers this year are: Delma Jean Lang, president; Joseph Fox, vice president; DeAnn Lyons, secretary treasurer. Miss Leona Forster is the sponsor of this society.

Members during this year were Seniors: Betty Churchwell, Joseph Fox, Kathleen Fiscalini; Juniors: DeAnn Lyons, Jane Mainini; Sophomores: Linda Neff, Elizabeth Conrad, Delma Jean Lang, Paul Madonna; Freshmen: David Allison.

Each year the society is permitted to take a trip to some point of interest that is worth-while or memorable. The date for this year's field trip has been set for May 13, which will be a skip-day from school, in recognition of meritorious scholarly work and service for Coast Union High School.

Freshmen Initiation

"Hear ye. Hear ye. Let it be here known by those present that the Senior Class requests that upon the seventeenth day of September in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty four the Freshmen Class is to appear dressed as follows: the boys in girls' bathing suits, nylon stockings, and old shoes or boots; and the girls in fathers' bib overalls and shirts worn backwards, and father's old shoes.

The boys are to bring shoe polish and brushes to polish Senior boys' shoes, and the girls are to bring cold cream and tubes of old lipstick.

The entire Freshmen Class is requested to attend school on Initiation Day in full costume. All those not present on that day will have a separate initiation on a given date.

Initiation Day will be over at the close of school when students get off the bus.

The entire Freshmen Class is invited to the Barn Dance from 8 o'clock to 12 o'clock that night as the guests of the Senior Class.

Freshmen, heed this notice!"
